T Abraham | Meeting Moderator
Regional Vice President, North Bay, Northern Sierra, Redwood Coast
Hospital Council of Northern & Central California

T Abraham is Regional Vice President for the Hospital Council of Northern and Central California. T serves the North Bay, Northern Sierra and Redwood Coast Sections covering 18 counties and 44 hospitals. T’s leadership and management experience includes both clinical and administrative related work in independent rural Hospitals and large multi-hospital urban systems. Before coming to the Hospital Council he was the Executive Director of Business Development at Marshall Medical Center in Placerville, CA.

Jenna Fischer, CPPS
Vice President, Regional Quality Network,
Hospital Quality Institute representing
Hospital Council of Northern & Central California

Ms. Fischer joined the HQI staff through her work at the Hospital Council of Northern and Central California. Prior to her work at the Hospital Council, Ms. Fischer worked at Lumetra Healthcare Solutions, formerly the California Quality Improvement Organization, where she was the Director overseeing the Centers for Medicare and Medicaid Services (CMS) statewide hospital, nursing home, and home health improvement initiatives. In this position her role focused on facilitating quality and patient safety improvement projects, and managing and growing business and community partnerships and coalitions. Ms. Fischer has over 20 years’ experience in healthcare managing quality improvement and patient safety initiatives.
Debby Rogers provides leadership in developing policy on clinical performance issues related to quality and quality measurement, case management, licensing and certification, and electronic health records. She also offers clinical and regulatory expertise in the transformation of health care delivery. Before joining CHA, she served as deputy director for the Center for Health Care Quality (CHCQ) at the California Department of Public Health where she oversaw CHCQ’s operations, as well as its licensing and certification, and health care associated infections programs.

She has more than two decades of legislative experience as a consultant on health and human services issues for the Legislature, and as the former associate secretary for legislative affairs at the California Health and Human Services Agency. Debby has many years of experience as a registered nurse, base hospital coordinator, emergency clinical nurse specialist and nurse manager, and was inducted as a fellow into the Academy of Emergency Nursing. She received her bachelor’s degree in nursing from San Jose State University and her master’s degree in emergency-trauma nursing from the University of California, San Francisco.

BJ Bartleson provides leadership in developing, communicating and implementing CHA policy related to nursing, emergency services, trauma and medication safety. She is recognized statewide and nationally as a nurse leader with more than 30 years of experience as an administrator, educator, researcher, clinician, manager and expert in multiple areas of acute patient care management and nursing practice. BJ received her Bachelor of Science degree with Distinction at the University of Virginia, School of Nursing in 1978, and her master’s degree in nursing administration at the University of California, San Francisco, in 1990. She served as the 2010 Association of California Nurse Leaders president and was on the board of the American Organization of Nurse Executives for more than 10 years. She has also served on the CHA Board of Trustees and the American Hospital Association Regional Policy Board.
